Local Public Affairs Firm Takes Notable Service Award For Service Achievement

Torrance, CA – Local consulting firm, Freeman Public Affairs Inc. was recently awarded the 2015 Communitas Award for Public Safety Commitment in the category, “Making A Difference.”

The Communitas Award was created to recognize exceptional contributions to the community from businesses, organizations and individuals and to acknowledge those who are changing how they do business to benefit their communities. The award was established by the R.S. Owens Company, originators of the Oscar®, Emmy®, MTV® and MarCom® Awards.

Freeman Public Affairs was nominated by the Rialto Police Benefit Association for the firm’s successful efforts and outstanding dedication to safeguarding and promoting public safety throughout the state.

According to Richard Royce, president of the Rialto Police Benefit Association, “Jim Freeman and Freeman Public Affairs have been on the front lines fighting to protect public safety associations for over a decade and a half. We were pleased to nominate their firm for this prestigious award.”

The firm adds its recent win to a growing list of accolades that include four 2014 Marcom Awards (two Platinum, two Gold - granted by the Association of Marketing and Communications Professionals), a 2011 Summit International Award and five 2010/15 Pollie awards (three Gold, two Silver - granted by the American Association of Political Consultants).

Says founder and president of Freeman Public Affairs, Jim Freeman, “I am extremely humbled by this award. The thought of being recognized for our commitment and service to the men and women in law enforcement is extremely rewarding and one of the highest honors.”

Freeman Public Affairs has been providing broad-spectrum campaign solutions for elected officials, public interest groups and trade associations throughout California for over a decade and a half.
